

ATLANTA SPEECH SCHOOL

Educational/Pediatric Audiologist Needed

Job Description:

The Atlanta Speech School is currently searching for an outstanding professional to serve as a pediatric and educational audiologist on a multi-disciplinary team for the 2010-2011 school year. The candidate will be expected to serve children enrolled in the all of the School's educational and clinical programs, with roughly 75% of this time used to serve the needs of the Katherine Hamm Center. The Katherine Hamm Center is a listening and spoken language program for children who are deaf or hard-of-hearing, ranging in age from newborn through elementary school. The individual will be expected to write in-depth reports with specific recommendations for intervention and evaluate a small number of children on an outpatient basis. Skill in providing feedback to parents and school personnel will also be important. Finally, this individual must be willing to present within the School and to community about various topics pertaining to the field of audiology on an occasional basis.

Education:

Doctorate of Audiology (AuD)

Certification:

ASHA certification and appropriate Georgia licensure required. ABA certification preferred.

Experience:

At least three years of post-externship experience is required as well as a familiarity in the following areas:

- evaluation of infants and toddlers
- selection, fitting, and verification of hearing aids on infants
- diagnosis and management of children with Auditory Neuropathy Spectrum Disorder (ANSO)
- cochlear implant, hearing aid, and BAHA troubleshooting
- CAPD evaluations

Experience with cochlear implant hook-up and mapping preferred.

Personal Characteristics:

The candidate should possess the ability to communicate well both orally and in writing. Strong organizational skills as well as the ability to meet established deadlines are required. Willingness to work as a member of a multidisciplinary team is necessary, as is a commitment to ongoing professional development.

Salary is commensurate with experience.
