

LANGUAGE & LITERACY WORKSHOPS

For Professionals Serving Children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

SPRING 2010

BEGINNINGS

CCCDP & CASTLE

DPI

Office of Education Services

Project EAR

Dates	Workshop Topic	Presenter(s)	Location	CEU's	Course Descriptions
Jan 28	* What To Do While You Wait for a Cochlear Implant	Renee Barnes Krista Heavner Kristin Milligan	Western NC School for the Deaf Chapel 517 West Fleming Drive Morganton, NC 28655	0.6	Using case studies, videos, and documented research, attendees will learn about how to make the most of the time of candidacy prior to implantation.
Jan 28-29	Bloom and Lahey 1	Kimberly Andrews Sherri Vernelson	Craven County Board Room Administrative Building, 3600 Trent Road, New Bern NC 28562	1.1	This workshop will focus on the sequence of early, expanding and complex language development using the Bloom & Lahey and CASLLS models.
Feb 6 (Saturday)	Bloom and Lahey: Practical Academic Applications	Barbara Lee Elissa Rushton	WCPSS—Special Education Services 110 Corning Road, Crossroads II—Room 1413 Cary, NC 27511	0.6	This workshop will address the issue of how to meet both the language and academic needs of school age deaf students using the Bloom & Lahey model.
Feb 8	* Speech Babble	Hannah Eskridge Lillian Henderson	The Zone 4801 Reedy Branch Road Winterville, NC 28590	0.6	The agenda will include information on typical babble development, speech acoustics, why and how we do speech babble.
Mar 4	* Audiology 101 for Speech Language Pathologists & Educators	Lisa Di Maria Krista Heavner	ADR Education Center 410 Garfield Street Statesville, NC 28677	0.6	Participants will be provided with an overview of audiological diagnostics, hearing disorders, auditory technology, speech acoustics and how all of these factors interact to affect the whole child.
Mar 8-9	Bloom and Lahey 2	Sherri Vernelson	Brinson Memorial Elementary School—Tech Center 319 Neuse Forest Avenue New Bern, NC 28560	1.1	This workshop will focus on the sequence of early, expanding and complex language development using the Bloom & Lahey and CASLLS models.
Mar 11-12	* Language & Literacy for Children with Multiple Challenges	Margaret Knott	Moore County Schools—Education Center 5277 Highway 15-501 South Carthage, NC 28327	1.1	Developing audition and spoken language in children with hearing loss and additional learning challenges
Mar 19	Informal Reading Assessment and Strategies	Denise Nelson	Auditorium at the Central Office 1712 Vaughn Road Burlington, NC 27217	0.6	A focus on informal procedures that can be used to assess reading ability and suggested strategies to overcome common plateau points in deaf and hard of hearing students' reading development.
Apr 20-21	Inclusion: The New Mainstreaming	Aubrey Dubios-Quinlan Sharon Moore Denise Nelson	Guilford County Administration 134 Franklin Blvd. Greensboro, NC 27401	1.1	Participants will receive an overview of the process of mainstreaming, factors to consider when evaluating placement of a student, classroom modifications, and utilization of support staff.
Apr 26-27	* Cochlear Implants	Lillian Henderson Holly Teagle	Extended Day School Davidson County 2065 East Holly Grove Road Lexington, NC 27292	1.1	This course includes an overview of the history and evolution of cochlear implant technology, a tutorial on the basics of cochlear implant components and function, and an explanation of the UNC cochlear implant evaluation process.

1. There is NO COST for NC Professionals; $50 for out-of-state attendees
2. Non ASHA CEU's will be offered for all workshops.
3. (*) LSLs approved workshop (pending)
4. To Register: www.ncbegin.org (registration deadline = 1 week prior to workshop)
5. All workshops will be held from 9am-4pm